Board of Education Primary and Special Elections Tomorrow

Voters in forty-nine (49) counties have elections tomorrow, February 9. Elections on the ballot include Board of Education primaries, Technology Center School District elections, as well as several Special Elections, including the race to fill a vacancy in State Senator District 22. Polls will be open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Voters are asked to follow all social distancing and safety protocols when voting in-person, and it is strongly recommended that voters to wear a mask or other facial covering to protect themselves, as well as those around them. Learn more about safety protocols at <https://oklahoma.gov/elections.html>.

Voters can view a sample ballot and find their polling place using the OK Voter Portal at <https://oklahoma.gov/elections/ovp.html>. A list of elections can be found at <https://hosting.okelections.us/electionlist.html>.

Today is also the last day to hand-deliver “standard” absentee ballots to the County Election Board. “Standard” absentee ballots must be received by county election board officials no later than the end of business day. Hours and locations are available at <https://oklahoma.gov/elections/about-us/county-election-boards.html>. Learn more about the hand delivery of absentee ballots at <https://oklahoma.gov/elections/voter-info/absentee-voting.html>.

For more information, contact the county election boards or State Election Board at (405) 521-2391 or info@elections.ok.gov.
